

Toronto Principals' Centre

A COMMUNITY OF LEARNERS FOR PRINCIPALS AND VICE PRINCIPALS

conversation with Joan Green

topic The Non-Negotiables and Promising Practices for Literacy

date Wednesday 6 October 2004

time 4:30 – 7:00 am

Join us for a lively conversation with Joan Green on the tough literacy issues confronting schools today. Joan will describe the non-negotiables we must live by to ensure high achievement for all students. She will also introduce new literacy resources developed strategically for student who can't, don't or won't read. Why not invite your school literacy team to enjoy the Conversation.

Joan Green has had a distinguished career as an educator and leader in public education. She has been a teacher, principal, consultant and superintendent before becoming the Director of Education for the City of Toronto. In 1995, Joan became the founding CEO of the EQAO. Joan was appointed a Commissioner on education for the province of Alberta in 2002. A published author on curriculum, assessment, leadership and equity, Joan co-authored Northern Lights: Outstanding Canadian Women and this summer she co-authored I Want To Read: Reading, Writing and Really Learning with David and Jack Booth. She is currently the Chair of the Board of Roots of Empathy.
