The Toronto Principals' Centre invites you to attend:

A Conversation with Lorna Earl

Head of International Centre for Educational Change:
Ontario Institute for Studies in Education/University of Toronto

Topic Assessment as Learning: Using Classroom Assessment to Maximize Student Learning

Lorna will lead a lively discussion in the last of a series of book talks that focus on learning for students, teachers and administrators. Assessment as Learning will take the confusion out of assessment and make it work to enhance the learning process.... everyday.

Assessment as Learning encourages teachers to use their judgment about children's understanding to inform the teaching process and determine what to do for individual students. School administrators and teachers will be introduced to mechanisms for the effective use of assessment as learning in a variety of contexts.
